BY W. N. HALDEMAN. PEFECEI 109 WEST JUITTREOS ST Hetween Third and Fuurth. SATTRUAT MORNING. . . IEB. 5, 1565. The New Humpshire and Connecticut Elections.

The approaching elections in these two States are beginning to ex-ten high degree of Interest among the leaders of both the great political parties. The election in New Hamp shire takes place in March, and that in Lon-meetient in April. The Ra cats carried New 000, which was a very decided D mocragain, but the Democrats seem consident that this year they will be at le to revelution? tory with which to start the Predicential cap paign. This is what the Radicals dread The moral effect which such a victory would have would be ruinous to all their hope. success and would be a drad weight spo-them during the entire cantaes. It would inspire the Democracy everywhere with on thusiasm and etimulate them to merwill, therefore, make an correctic struggle to carry the state, speakers ir all parts of the Falon will make the air resonnd on every hill and in every valley. Mon y be scattered with a levish hand, and no mi it we are well assured that their offerts will be mot with counter efforte, and the itutional legislation, their naur patk their trands and their merepresentation thoroughly exposed, and lustend o being the attacking party they will be consteady thrown on the definite, and because pelled to detend the policy which is lively indetended to detend the policy which is treated to detend the policy which is treated to detend the policy which is more than more idious the more it is discussed.

In Connecticut the prospect for a living alle triumph is still more uncouraging. I c the last election we made a b indrome gair apon the Radical vote, and carried the Stat by a handsome majority, tur triends their have the adventage of this majority to start on, and they will tabor zeal u i to increas-it. No doubt the Radtents will make powerful efforts, but it is unreasonable to supporthat the people who retused to suctain to Radical pacty upon the platform upor ditutional policy which they hav alm adopted, and which they boring to fix apon the people.
